Traveling in a COVID-19 world

Check the hotel's COVID-19 prevention practices before you go

Use options for online reservation and check-in, mobile room key, and contactless payment.

Before you go, call and ask if all staff are wearing masks at work.

Look for any extra prevention practices being implemented by the hotel, such as plexiglass barriers at check-in counters, and physical distancing signs in the lobby.

Ask if the hotel has updated policies about cleaning and disinfecting or removing frequently touched surfaces and items (such as pens, room keys, tables, phones, doorknobs, light switches, elevator buttons, water fountains, ATMs/card payment stations, business center computers and printers, ice/vending machines, and remote controls).

Spring Festival

Europe's biggest and most attractive spring festival is always well worth a visit, especially for families. The "little brother" of the Cannstatter Volksfest is ideal for both a gentle stroll around the funfair and full blood partying.

In the state capital of Baden Württemberg - the Stuttgart Frühlingsfest is the 2nd largest fest in Germany. After the long winter break, the spring festival on the co-called "Wasen" is awash with traditional carousels and the latest funfair rides and attractions for three weeks beginning in the middle of April. Spring fest (10 day tour) Germany, Austria, Switzerland starting at $2,950.00 pp (Hotel & land tour)

COLLEAGUES

MR, FILIPE RIBAS - HEREDIA

Dinkelacker Brewery Restaurant

Some times we have an opportunity to plan an event for a group, or a special dinner. Well, I love working with our friend Mr. Ribas at the Dinkelacker Brewery Restaurant in Stuttgart, Germany. Not just is this restaurant venue wonderful with private party areas such as a beer cellar, VIP parking, Beer tastings & a wonderful Brewery tour. The traditional german cuisine will have you returning and your guests raving about the authentic german vibes you will have here. It feels like a beer fest 363 days a year Looking forward to our next visit, and working with our colleague Filipe.

Zwetschgendatschi

Plum cake

The Zwetschgendatschi is a plum sheet cake originating in Augsburg, Bayern (Bavaria). However, this cake goes by a variety of different names, depending on where you are in the country, and therefore has a few things to teach us about German language and culture:

1. The word 'datschi' is used in southern Germany and is said to come from the verb datschen (or detschen), meaning 'to pinch', as the plums are 'pinched' into the dough to make this cake.

2. Outside of the south it is likely to be called either Zwetschgenkuchen or Pflaumenkuchen, using the word Kuchen (cake) instead of the more regional Datschi.

3. Both Zwetschgen and Pflaumen are plums (singular: die Zwetschge / die Pflaume). They are just different types of plums!

4. It is said that the Zwetschgendatschi originated in Augsburg, and was originally designed to resemble the Zirbelnuss (pine cone) on the Augsburg coat of arms. For this reason, Augsburg is also known affectionately as Datschiburg.
